THE WRITING CENTER

“The Writing Center is thoughtfully designed as a comprehensive campus resource for just about everyone on campus: students, faculty, and staff. It is meant to be scholarly as well as fun — melding technical assistance with creative flair and inspiration.”

~DR. BRITTANY CARLSON,
Writing Center Coordinator and
Assistant Professor of English

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that Westminster College has a writers club? For details, ask Dr. Jeremy Reed at Jeremy.Reed@WCMO.edu.

WHAT IS THE WRITING CENTER?

The Writing Center is a place where you can seek support for all of your writing tasks. Writing consultants from various backgrounds are on-hand to assist you with all your writing needs.

WHEN SHOULD I GO?

Ideally, as soon as you know you have a writing task. Many students come to the writing center several times while working on the same project. Many students also set goals with us and make appointments in advance to hold themselves accountable for completing their writing tasks.

WHAT SHOULD I BRING?

Please bring any prompts, pre-writing, or drafts that you may have. If your writing is not for a class, and you want to brainstorm with us, that is fine, too. Please just bring what you have.
